Pentecost Sunday, June 9, 2019

(Please wear something red)

Scripture: Isaiah 41:10; Psalm 56:34

Message: Unafraid – Week 1

This Sunday we'll begin a new sermon series focusing on Adam Hamilton's book, Unafraid: Living with Courage and Hope in Uncertain Times. Drawing on research, psychology, biblical principles, and his long experience as pastor of a diverse faith community, Hamilton shows in Unafraid that we can put aside fear and anxiety. With insight, intention and faith, we can learn to overcome what worries us, and live with courage and hope.

WANTED – STONES & ROCKS

for

The Labyrinth in the Field

As you know, Edgecomb Community Church is in the process of creating a labyrinth for the enjoyment of all our neighbors and friends. We are in need of stones & rocks to continue outlining the rings of the labyrinth. If you have any rocks that you can spare, please bring them to the church and leave at the parking lot side of church near the Mary garden. The photos below show the progress of the labyrinth with examples of the sizes of stones that would be helpful. Thank you!

A Reflection for Pentecost Sunday

"Great ideas, it has been said, come into the world as quietly as doves. Perhaps, then, if we listen attentively, we shall hear amid the uproar of empires and nations a faint flutter of wings, a gentle stirring of life and hope."

Albert Camus, 20th century

Grace and peace, Kate
