Vicki Burbank

Hello!

My name is Victoria Burbank and I was born on a farm in Lexington Township, Maine which is in the foot hills of Bigelow Mountain. I grew up with a brother and sister, wonderful mother and father, and grandparents that lived close.

My mother's family was very musical and on Saturday nights we created our own fun with my dad playing the fiddle, my mom the harmonica, my aunt and I playing the guitar and the rest playing the spoons. Everyone sang! We were a gathering house for all to come and enjoy.

I have been singing since being able to talk and playing the guitar since Grade 3. I have played on the radio, at college hootenannies, and in dance bands. However, my favorite singing of all is Gospel music.

I have lived in Jefferson for 40 years and have raised my four children here. We were active singers in the Jefferson Baptist Church when they were growing up.

Most recently I have shared my music at the Congregational Church in North Anson and The United Presbyterian Church in North New Portland.

I am a retired teacher of 31 years and have substituted music programs in Waldoboro, Warren, Friendship and Great Salt Bay school system.

I am so excited to be welcomed by the Edgecomb Community Church. I hope the parishioners will enjoy the songs I sing and I am more than willing to do requests. I know that we can all praise God with our singing.
